

Kevin Mills is a retired 23- year United States Air Force Vietnam Veteran and a retired 24-year Government Civil Servant Employee. He is a fully qualified and highly experienced counselor with over 40 years specializing in the fields of behavioral health, biblical counseling, prevention and treatment of addictions, suicide prevention, domestic violence, child abuse, marital issues and other high-risk behaviors. His educational resume is:

FORMAL EDUCATION:

Master of Arts, Professional and Biblical Counseling
Colorado Christian University, Colorado Springs CO

Bachelor of Science, Organizational Management (Employee Assistance)
Colorado Christian University, Colorado Springs CO

Applied Associate, Social Services
Community College, United States Air Force

SPECIALIZED TRAINING:

Substance Abuse Issues and Inpatient and Outpatient Treatment Technical Training, Lackland AFB, San Antonio, TX

Air Force Behavioral Health and Advanced Drug/Alcohol Technical Training,
Lackland AFB, San Antonio, TX

Domestic Violence, Suicide Prevention, Sexual Assault and Child Abuse Training
Institute for Integral Development, Colorado Springs, CO

LICENSES/CERTIFICATES:

Colorado State License: Alcohol and Drug Abuse Senior Counselor (CAC III) Colorado
Department of Human Services, Denver Colorado (LPC retired)

Internationally Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (ICRC)
International Certification Reciprocity and Other Drug Abuse, Inc (ICRC/AODA) (retired)

Indiana State License: Clinically Certified Forensic Counselor (CCFC) (retired)
Division of Addictions, American College of Certified Forensic Counselors (ACCFC)

Family Assistance Support Team Certification Training
Marine Corp Base, Barstow, CA

Quit Smart (tobacco) Smoking Cessation Leader- Certification Training
Quit Smart, (Stop Smoking) Inc.